We would like to introduce you to St. Catharine College, the newest NAIA wrestling program in Kentucky. The St. Catharine College wrestling team will be entering its second season in 2015-2016 and will be competing in the honorable Mid-South Conference. We have assembled a very competitive team over the past two years of recruiting by landing 13 state finalists and a roster representing 8 states. We would like to build on this momentum in the year to come as we continue towards our goal of a national championship team. You are receiving this letter in recognition of your accomplishments on the mat, and we would like to extend an invitation for you to come visit our campus to see if we are a good fit for you.

St. Catharine College was founded upon the Dominican tradition in 1931 and sponsored today by the Dominican Sisters of Peace. Our campus is conveniently located on route 150 near Springfield, KY just 10 minutes south of the Bluegrass Parkway. It is easily accessed and less than one hour from both Louisville and Lexington. Just 10 miles from campus is the city of Bardstown, which was voted the #1 most beautiful small town in America by USA Today.

The program is coached by 3x NAIA All-American, Spencer Adams and assisted by Gary Canter, a KYWCA Hall of Fame member, and Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Brandon Sellers. Our affiliate assistant coach is Sergei Kitaev, a 3X World Champion and former Head Olympic Coach for Belarus in the London 2012 Olympic Games. For more bio information on our coaches go to <http://gosc patriots.com>.
