Our Coaches

Coach Carr Sr. comes from a family that is known throughout the country for wrestling. The Carr family is the only family in NCAA history to have five brothers who are All-Americans. Some of Coach Carr's accolades include: 3x NCAA All-American, Silver Medalist Pan American games, 2x USA National Champion, and USA World Team Alternate. Coach Carr coached at WCHS for thirty years and has won 14 state championships. He has coached 56 individual state champions which is more than any other KHSAA school.

Carr Jr. was a 4x state champion. Joseph graduated from WCHS in 1997, with a career record of 242-7 losses. The 242 wins were a national record from 1997-2004, and ranked second at the time of his induction into the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame in 2008. After graduating from WCHS Carr Jr. Received a full athletic scholarship to WVU. He continued his success while attending WVU where he tied for the university's all time wins by a freshman in all weight classes. In his sophomore year, he won the Eastern Western League championship; was second on the team in wins, and ranked as high as 7th nationally. Carr totaled over 100 career wins at WVU and was a four time NCAA qualifier, two time Eastern Western League champion, and three time Eastern Western League finalist. Carr Jr. Was inducted into the KSHAA Hall of Fame in 2008.
